Boston, Massachusetts 02210
p: (857) 496-4104
e: nicole@srboston.com

The Social Register brings the elite and fashionable of Boston society to the seaport neighborhood inside the Aloft Hotel. Coming from the team behind Back Bay's, The Brahmin American Cuisine & Cocktails, this new restaurant and lounge will bring all the charm and appeal of our sister location to a brand new space. The Social Register, a directory book, which was first published in 1890 and is still in production today contains all the prominent names of The Boston Brahmins and other influential families in the community and all over the world. The theme of high society and timeless allure will be found in everything from the décor to the menu and cocktails in a comfortable setting.

Coppersmith is a dynamic venue serving globally influenced comfort food in a vintage-industrial warehouse in South Boston. The space features an expansive indoor bar and dining area, a seasonal patio and a rooftop AirDeck, as well as a cafe. Our dinner and weekend lunch menus consist of familiar staples as well as adventurous interpretations of classic dishes with international influences, while our two indoor food trucks serve up an ever-changing roster of global street food items. Coppersmith boasts echoes of an industrial past, retaining aesthetic elements of its former life as the Dahlquist Manufacturing Co, which specialized in copper fabrication. The artfully repurposed, airy, and dynamic venue is the result of a commitment to preserving historic integrity, while creating a neighborhood restaurant that emphasizes creativity and encourages sociability.

From award winning chef Jody Adams, TRADE is a high energy neighborhood restaurant with a youthful European sensibility and a lively bar. The menu is influenced by international flavors, balanced with a love for New England ingredients. Some of the food will be familiar, some will be intriguing, and all of it will be appealing. TRADE is inspired by the location of Atlantic Wharf. We trade with farmers for produce and local meats, and we trade with local residents and businesses for our goods. It embodies the spirit of our project - familiar and lively with an element of surprise.
