Check registrant badges and collect tickets upon entrance to the lecture

- Course code on ticket must match course code of class entering.
- As attendees enter, check badges, and collect tickets.

If an attendee has not pre-registered for a free course

- Attendees with tickets are seated first. If all seats are not full, those without a ticket should be allowed into the course 10 minutes after the start course start time. Please ask them to go to the registration area in the North Lobby to have the course added to their record after the completion of the course. No substitute tickets are allowed.

Fill seats from front of the room to the back

- As attendees enter the classroom make sure they fill in the front of the room first, leaving the back of the room for late comers, so not to interrupt the program in session.
